Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, On September 26, 1910, a charter was granted to the Citizens State Bank in Mobridge, and it opened its doors to the public with capital in the amount of $12,000; and,

Whereas, In October 1933, the bank became a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and in December that same year, the bank joined the Federal Reserve System; and,

Whereas, In 1938, the bank was renamed the Citizens Bank of Mobridge; in 1969, Dacotah Bank Holding Company purchased controlling interest from its principal stockholders; and, on February 1, 1995, the holding company changed its name to Dacotah Banks, Inc., with all the subsidiary banks becoming Dacotah Bank, with 27 locations in North and South Dakota; and,

Whereas, The original site of the bank was located south of the city auditorium; in 1947, it moved to the building north of the Brown Palace Hotel; and, in 1967, the bank moved to a newly-constructed building at the present day location, featuring the first drive-up banking window in Mobridge; and,

Whereas, Dacotah Bank's motto is, "Here For You!", and its 21 employees, ATM, phone banking, and E-banking allow customers to be served 24 hours a day; and,

Whereas, Dacotah Bank employees also show their willingness to serve the community through their participation in virtually every service organization in Mobridge and their involvement with numerous community events and fundraisers; and,

Whereas, Dacotah Bank will celebrate its 100th Birthday with all of the fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants as employees, customers, and friends gather on September 21, 2010, to recognize this auspicious occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 21, 2010, as in South Dakota.

MOBRIDGE DACOTAH BANK DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State